ABCDEs of Melanoma Brochures

The Skin Cancer Foundation's brochure titled "The ABCDEs of Melanoma" is now available in both English and Spanish. The foldout helps to identify the most important differences between common moles and melanomas: Asymmetry, Border irregularity, Color variations, and large Diameter and Evolving. To order copies, contact the foundation at 800-754-6490.

New Multilanguage Resources

The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration has released publications for non-English speakers. "What is Substance Abuse Treatment? A Booklet for Families" is available in Chinese, Vietnamese, and Korean, as well as Russian and Spanish. This and other products, including booklets in Navajo, can be downloaded at www.kap.samhsa.gov/mli.

Inhalant Info for Teens

The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration is providing a brochure that discusses the facts about inhalants and dispels myths surrounding them. The brochure presents information on long- and short-term effects, physical and psychological risks, and warning signs that may indicate their use. To download or order the free brochure, visit <http://ncadistore.samhsa.gov/catalog/productDetails.aspx?ProductID=14528>.

Helping Young Offenders

The Young Offender Reentry Program aims to teach young offenders how to stop the cycle of crime and recidivism, get treatment for substance abuse and mental health issues, and become active in their communities. The program is funded by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration. To view an article about the program in SAMHSA News, visit www.samhsa.gov/samhsa_news/VolumeXVI_3/article1.htm. To subscribe to SAMHSA News in print, call 888-577-8977.

Concussion Tool Kit for Coaches

A tool kit for athletic coaches, "Heads Up: Concussion in High School Sports," contains resources that provide information about concussion, including a DVD; a guide, wallet card, and clipboard sticker for coaches; posters; fact sheets for parents and athletes in English and Spanish; and a CD-ROM. The kit is free of charge from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. For more info, visit www.cdc.gov/ncipc/tbi/Coaches_Tool_Kit.htm.

ADHD and Stuttering Aid

The Stuttering Foundation offers a brochure with ideas for how parents and professionals can help children who have ADHD and who stutter. Tips for improving both focus and speech include keeping instructions simple and asking the child to repeat them. Contact the Stuttering Foundation by visiting www.stutteringhelp.org.
