

Hyperhidrosis

What leading dermatologists recommend for the best patient care

Where you see hyperhidrosis

69%

axillae

27%

palms

27%

soles

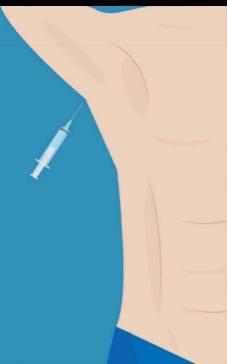

4%

all over

Hyperhidrosis most commonly presents on the axillae

Click for more information

How to treat hyperhidrosis

4 MONTHS

6 MONTHS

The effects of botulinum toxin last at least 4 months and up to 6 months in most patients

Click for more information

DRY MOUTH

is the most common side effect of systemic anticholinergics

Click for more information

Most dermatologists report that their patients are not satisfied with topical treatments

Click for more information

≤10%

of patients need surgery after other therapies have failed

Click for more information

Source:
A survey was fielded electronically to Cutis Editorial Board Members within the United States from March 11, 2019, to April 8, 2019. A total of 26 usable responses were received.

Reviewed by Shari R. Lipner, MD, PhD (New York, New York). Full survey results including commentary from Dr. Lipner available at bit.ly/2ZHRiut